MAHARAJA'S EXPRESS TRAIN TOUR

Promoted by IRCTC, the catering wing of the Indian Railways, the Maharajas Express has been voted as the best royal train of India. It is perhaps the only royal train to offer 5 itineraries to cover destinations as far apart as Mumbai and Khajuraho over periods stretching from a week or so to two weeks and more. The five luxury tour circuits are The Heritage of India, Gems of India, The Indian Panorama, Treasures of India and The Indian Splendour. The fantastic train is about half a mile long and has two restaurants offering royal cuisine, a lounge a bar and other recreational facilities as well as spa and boutique. Guests have the option of selecting the Presidential suite, express suite, and express junior suite and deluxe cabins. The unique feature of Maharajas Express is that each guest is given royal treatment from the point of welcome to the point of departure, with a personal attendant assigned, much in the same way as royalty used to have personal attendants. The Maharajas Express is the acme of perfection in Maharaja Style travel and it is also the most expensive but gives the most cherished and memorable experience of all.

While driving back to New Delhi visit Raj Ghat – a memorial that is dedicated to Mahatma Gandhi. The ghat is located in the banks of River Yamuna. It is a black marble platform that is built at the spot of cremation of Mahatma Gandhi, the father of the nation. Visit the Agrasen ki baoli is a stepwell located near central Delhi. Thousands of these sophisticated water-harvesting structures proliferated throughout India beginning around 600 CE. Visit Bangla Sahib Gurudwara as the freshness to go to a Holy Place in morning is really very good. Dedicated to 8th Sikh guru Sri Harkishen Sahib, the hall of the gurudwara is kept simple, except for the open central shrine, covered by a small golden dome sporting a sculpted bronze cupola. Devotional Kirtan is relayed throughout the complex continuously. On entering the premises you can hear the chants and bhajan going on gurudwara. One can visit the main complex bare-footed only, covering one's head. Make visit to the pond (sarovar), main central hall and the community kitchen which is located in the east side of the complex. Conclude your day with visit to 72 meter high Qutub Minar; being one of the most important landmarks of Delhi, with calligraphically decorated interiors and also inscriptions of verses of the Holy Quran. Stay overnight at hotel in Delhi.
